Brateck

Heavy-Duty by Design. Flexible by Nature.

GAS SPRING MONITORY ARM

Upgrade larger single-screen setups with the Brateck LDT82-C012 Single Screen Heavy-Duty Gas Spring Monitor Arm. Its single-arm design is ideal for users who want heavy-duty support for larger monitors in a simpler, streamlined setup without the added connectivity features of USB-equipped models.

Effortless Ergonomic Control

Gas spring support allows effortless screen repositioning throughout the day.

180° Rotation Stop

Helps prevent the monitor arm from swinging into nearby walls, screens or workspace elements.

Keyhole Pattern

Simplifies monitor mounting for faster and easier installation.

Built-In Cable Management

Keeps power and display cables neatly routed for a cleaner, more organised desk setup.
